Unions Seek Federal and State Prosecution, Alleging Conspiracy.

STIFLE COMPETITION

Accuse Conference Board Members of Existing to Control Supply.

AFFIDAVITS ARE FILED

Distributers Call Action Move to Becloud Real Issues of Strike.

An effort to bring about Federal or State prosecution of certain members Board on the ground they are in an unlawful conspiracy in violation of the Sherman and Donnelly anti-trust was made yesterday by the Milk Drivers Union in an affidavit controls Milk Supply.

In the affidavit the board is charged with existing primarily "to control the milk supply, particularly in the city of New York and vicinity, stife competition and 'to increase the spirit of cooperation for mutual benefit between them' (that is, between its members), by increasing the cost of milk to the people of the single quotation marks is quoted directly from the certificate of incorporation of the board, according to Mr. Johnston.

"We must regard this union move as a case of 'drawing a red herring across the trail,' was the comment of I. Elkin Nathans, secretary of the Milk Conference Board, when shown the union's affidavit.

skull, sustained when he was hit by a commercial automobile near his home content his defected, in the defect of the Measure at the direction of the Roman Catholic hierarchy."

The Hudson county boulevard police, the Roman Catholic hierarchy."

Tweety possible legal step ought to the taken to obtain redress for what occurred and to insure against its repetitions obtained his action was taken at the direction of the Roman Catholic hierarchy."

ence Board, when shown the union's affidavit.

affidavit.
"We will discuss these latest charges made by the unions when the matter comes up," continued Mr. Nathans "The union treated with the Milk Conference Board quite willingly before this time, without making this latest variety of charges."

of charges.

"The public is getting an adequate supply of milk. Union men in several localities have expressed a desire to return to work. The open shop seems established and the public inconvenience seems passing. In the light of these facts we cannot be criticised for failing to take these latest charges seriously."

Names of Plaintiffs.

The claintiffs in the injunction proceedings are: Borden's Farm Products Company, Inc.; Beakes Dairy Company, Brooklyn Milk Company, Inc.; R. S. Chardavoyne, Inc.: Clover Farms, Inc.: Empire State Dairy Company, W. M. Evans Dairy Company, Inc.; High Ground Dairy Company, New York and Rider Dairles, Inc.: Reid Ice Cream Company, M. H. Renken Dairy Company, Sheffield Farms Dairy Company, Inc.; Willow Brook Dairy, Model Dairy Company, Meadow Brook Dairy, Oranse County Milk Association and the Premium Dairy Company.

The defendants are F. J. Sterbinsky of the New York city local; Edward H. Schult, treasurer of Local 147 of Jersey City; Harry P. Combes, president of Lecal 125 of Mount Vernon, and twenty-

'APPLE KATY' FOUND

Had Sold Papers for More Than Twenty Years.

MRS. ENRIGHT'S GEMS She Found Them in Store-Gets Reward of $100.

While detectives were searching for the bag containing jewelry valued at $3.000, lost by Mrs. Richard E. Enright, wife of the Police Commissioner, last Monday afternoon, Mrs. Teresa Early of 1381 Bushwick avenue, Brooklyn, whose husband is a striking employee of the Empire State Dairy Company, was trying to locate Mrs. Enright to turn the lost property over to her.

Mrs. Early is employed as a saleswoman on the fourth floor of the Namm department store in Brooklyn, and found the bag on the floor late Monday. She examined the contents, and found a wrist watch with this inscription: "Presented to Mrs. Richard E. Enright by the Commissioner of Police." That night Mrs. Early went to the Enright home at 837 St. Mark's avenue, Brooklyn, but the Enrights were not at home. Mrs. Early went to the home of Mayor John F. Hylan and saw the Mayor's secretary, who told her to turn the bag over to the Namm lost and found department. This Mrs. Early did, and Mrs. Enright the next day recovered her jewelry. Mrs. Early said Mrs. Enright gave her $100.

Headquarters Makes No Reply

BOX TIPS, HE FALLS, A TRUCK KILLS HIM

of the New York Milk Conference Unusual Accident Befalls Man held in the Park Theatre, Columbus Sitting at Curb at Wallabout Market.

Milk Drivers Union in an affidavit of Fred J. Sterbinsky, president of Local 584, filed before Justice Isaac M. Kapper, in the Supreme Court, Brocklyn.

The affidavit was submitted by John B. Johnston, attorney for the union, in opposition to the application made by certain of the milk distributers for by certain of the milk distributers for the distributers for the milk distributers for the meeting last sunday night. The reason given for the change was that the theatre's capacity is about five times as great as that of Bryant Hall.

Members of the Birth control meeting last sunday night. The reason given for the change was that the theatre's capacity is about five times as great as that of might when Lipwisky shifted his weight the fell in front of an automobile truck, which ran over him and crushed him to death. The driver, Charles Lepters 2868 was the threat the theatre's capacity is about five times as great as that of might when Lipwisky shifted his weight the control meeting last sunday night. The reason given for the change was that the theatre's capacity is about five times as great as that of might when Lipwisky shifted his weight the control meeting last sunday night. The reason given for the change was that the theatre's capacity is about five times as great as that of might when Lipwisky shifted his weight the control meeting last sunday night. The reason given for the change was that the theatre's capacity is about five times as great as that of might when Lipwisky shifted his weight the control meeting last sunday night. The control meeting last sunday night.

BANDITS SHOOT CASHIER NEAR PENNSY STATION

Flee Down Eighth Avenue is in Washington, expressing regret that marine, who was passing the restaurant,

OF $50,000 U. S. BONDS

The charge that the Milk Conference Board aims at controlling the milk supply of this city is mentioned in the arridavit as follows: "Plaintiffs not only admit they enjoy a monopoly of the milk distribution in the city of New York but boast that 85 per cent. of all milk distributed in the five boroughs of New York city is distributed by them."

In regard to the price of milk sold by milk distributers who are members of the board the affidavit calls attention as follows to the fact the quart price is sleways the same to the consumer, no matter what its initial cost at the dairy may have been and regardless of hew long or how short a distance it may have been transported.

"It is this unlawful conspiracy that permits pialutiffs to exact from the citizens of New York is cents a quart for the same grade milk that the people of Chicago secure for 12 cents."

"APPLE KATY' FOUND

DEAD IN HER HOME PASTOR HURT ON TRAIN GETS $35,000 VERDICT Long Island Railroad Loses Whiting Case.

Mrs. Kute Carter, known familiarly to hundreds of residents of Washington Heights as "Apple Katy," who daily sold newspapers at the subway stand, 222dway and 145th street, was found dead yesterday in rooms at 1724 Ameterdam avenue, where she lived. She was 63 years old. Death, according to an ambulance bhysician from Knickerbocker Hospital, was due to heart disease.

Born in Wales, Mrs. Carter came to this country as a young woman and for a time lived on Long Island. She had sold newspapers in the vicinity of 165th street for more than twenty years. The police are seeking a trace of relatives.

RETURNED BY WOMAN MRS. SANGER SHIFTS RALLY UP TO CIRCLE

Headquarters Makes No Reply and Archbishop Is Silent on Invitation.

The mass meeting of the first Amercan birth control conference will be instead of in Bryant Hall as formerly announced by Mrs. Margaret Sanger, who was arrested at the Town Hall birth control meeting last Sunday in opposition to the application made by estain of the milk distributers for a continuation of the temporary injunction restraining strikers from violence and picketing granted by the court last Thursday. At the same time, however, Mr. Johnston told the court has Thursday. At the same time, however, Mr. Johnston told the court he agreed that violence should be restrained and he joined in making the application after it had been modified in certain respects.

Letters calling attention to the filling of the affidavit have been sent by George W. Briggs, general auditor and receiver of the union; to United States District Attorney-General Charles D. Newton, United States District Attorney William B. Hayward and the District Attorneys of the first and Detective William B. Hayward and the District Attorneys of the five metropolitan counties.

Mr. Johnston, whose office is at 100 Broadway, said the move had been made by the union to draw the attention of the officials to the illegality of the methods employed by the Milk Conference Board.

Controls Wilk Sanals.

Mr. Marsh said that while ne did no Mr. Marsh said that while he did not anticipate any trouble to-morrow night he was prepared to take quick legal means to prevent police interference A telegram was received by Mrs. Sanger from H. G. Wells, English writer, who

After Vain Holdup.

It is in Washington, expressing regret that he would be unable to attend the rally. He said he would be here in appirit, and it was with "great astonishment and indignation" he learned of the police interference on Sunday night.

Mrs. Sanger has received no reply to an invitation sent to Archbishop Patrick J. Hayes asking that he be present or send an accredited representative to present evidence in the money in the house.

Stires reached down to close the restaurant's safe and one of the three mendare a revolver and fired four shots. Two of the bullets struck Stires in the left thigh, another shattered a window and a fourth lodged in a showcase behind the cashier's head, Stires fell to the floor and the three men ran into the street.

Lawrence Brodie, a United States marine, who was passing the restaurant, are the three man arm from the place.

saw the three men run from the place. He shouted at them to stop, but they ran across the street lato the Pennsylvania Terminal and vanished. Stires was sent to Bellevue Hospital. 32 YEARS ON FORCE Costigan Will Get Yearly Pension of $2,000.

Honest Dan Costigan, thirty-two years in the Police Department, and just prior to the present police administration known throughout the country as a viginant vice crusader, signed himself off duty for the last time last night in the Liberty gvenue station, Brooklyn, and added to the duty record the word "retired." His application for retirement was filed with Police Commissioner Enright Saturday and was approved yesterday morning. He is on pension of $2,000 a year.

$2,000 a year.

Capt. Costigan said at his home in 420 East 141st street early this morning that he intended to enter the private detective business. The principal resthat he had retired, he said, was that he that he had retired, he said, was that he had "suffered much unpleasantness at the lights of Enright and Hylan" and did not want to have four years of it. He declared that he would have a long statement to issue within a few days.

His retirement became effective at midnight. As many of his old friends on the force as could were present at the little expense. That worked his depart. little ceremony that marked his depart-

Advertisement.

Worsted, the Aristocrat.

Worsted the "Aristocrat" among cloths for men's wear. A fine strong fabric, which, when well made up in a suit wears a long time. Here are splendid worsted suits of my own manufacture, which accounts for my reasonable prices. $26, $32, All wool, good wool overcoats with beits, rasian shoulders and warmin without weight fabrics $37.59, $50. G. N. VINCENT, 524 6th Ave., Bet. 21st and 32d Sts.

SIEWART Week at WANAMA

John Wanamaker (formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.)

Broadway at Ninth, New York

Telephone 4700 Stuyvesant

"He Who Lies Down Soaps-from Paris With Dogs

must not be surprised if he gets up with fleas," seems to be an adage even older than the hills.

The savings of the early fathers and of Poor Richard represent experiences and observations that we may profit by.

We have often thanked those who have turned us off a bad road to a better one.

are good reading for those cately scented with rose, fougere, The signboards of the past who are still journeying on.

November 17, 1921.

a jolly young man from Paris, dis-tinctly Chinese as to character, perhaps, but composed entirely -e x c epting his very chic hat and his beads-of the best French soap! Delieau de cologne, all delightful French perfumes; 50c.

SAN FOU-

They thoughtfully brought with them a shipment of Mandarinette-au jus d'orange, that inusually refreshing soap which is just the right size and shape for the hand; 18c.

Main Floor, Old Building

RICHARD STRAUSS

-the great composer, conductor, pianist-one of the greatest musicians of all time-records his playing exclusively

for the AMPICO

This marvelous invention-embodied in America's oldest piano, the internationally famous CHICKERING, a piano or surpassing beauty of tone-has made it possible for anyone, anywhere, at any time, to enjoy the interpretations of great pianists, in their own homes.

Now to the long list of honored names it adds that of RICHARD STRAUSS, whose compositions, and exquisite songs, will be available soon for all owners of AMPICO Reproducing

You may hear the AMPICO any day, in the new AMPICO Studios, in the most interesting Piano Salons of Convenient terms of payment, old pianos taken in part exchange.

First Gallery, New Building

First Time on Sale Special for Stewart Week

Men's $50 to $60 Ulsters

$36.50

175-$50 grade 75-$55 grade 50-$60 grade

300 of them, heavy, warm, smart cold-weather coats-the kind one hesitates to associate in cold print with so small a price as $36.50.

Town ulsters. Dress ulsters. Storm ulsters. Raglans. Grays and browns and heathers with excellently blended plaid backs, or plain backs take your choice. All double-breasted, quarterlined with good satin. Most of them half belted. Big collars.

300 only; sizes 35 to 46.

Men's $3.50 to $5 Union Suits $2.50

1,000 suits, medium and heavy weight wool and cotton mixture—a very serviceable blending. Fine ribbed suits in silver gray, natural tones and white. Plain weaves in white and natural tones. The discontinued styles of two well-known makers -else we could not have made this low price.

Sizes 34 to 46, but not in each kind.

Burlington Arcade Floor, New Building

Children's Book Week

Six popular books on sale in the Book Store-books that are simple, sincere and accurate, easily assimilated by the youthful mind, and which will lay the foundation for what is the greatest single source of pleasure in life -GOOD BOOKS thoroughly enjoyed and understood.

FAMOUS DOGS OF FICTION— Edited by Walker McSpadden, $1.60. Here we find "Rab" and "Bob son of Battle"—Bill Sykes' dog from "Oliver Twist," etc.

THE LAUGHING PRINCE—by Parker Fillmore, $2.50. A book of Jugoslav Fairy Tales. The third volume of this series.

THE BOOK OF NATURE STORIES—by H. Waddingham Seers, $2.50. Stories which reveal the wonders of plant and ani-

ROUND ROBIN — by Abbie Farwell Brown, $2. An intimate story of American children's lives — the healthy outdoor sports and pleasant pastimes indulged in by wholesome boys and girls. FROM TENDERFOOT TO GOLDEN EAGLET — by Amy Blanchard, $1.75. A girl scout

TALES OF TRUE KNIGHTS—by George Philip Krapp, $1.75. Legends and allegories from the middle ages retold for boys and

The Book Store, Main Floor, and Downstairs Store, Old Building

145 Dozen Venetian Table Glasses and Finger Bowls One Third Less AU QUATRIEME

This is the first time we have been able to sell Venetian glass at about the same prices that people are paying for domestic glass.

There is a large quantity of it, so that any table service may be completed from this large stock. It is not only an opportunity to fill up the gaps in one's own table service or to enlarge it, at prices a third less, but it is a gift opportunity that many people will welcome this time of year.

GLASSES-CONE SHAPED Large size, $24 a dozen, regularly $36. Small size, $20 a dozen, regularly $30. Two sizes in ten different colors—ruby red, amethyst, dark blue, purple, yellow, amber, aquamarine, old green and white clear glass.

GOBLETS Large size, $32 a dozen, regularly $48. Small size, $28 a dozen, regularly $42.

Two sizes and three different styles of each size, in three different shades—amber, deep purple, aquamarine. FINGER BOWLS AND PLATES

$40 a dozen, regularly $60. Three different shapes of the bowls, four different colors -purple, green, amber, aquamarine. Fourth Floor, Old Building

An Investment In

tha will be of real interest o a : con emplating such a purchase for Christmas

One of the largest diamond cutters desired to liquidate his holdings before the end of the year. Having some inside information we were able to make a most favorable acquisition to our stocks.

Perfect stone: in shape cutting and color.

Of our standard quality-"Top Wesseltons."

Ranging in the most popular sizes from one-quarter to a full carat and a half; with specimens of exceptional brilliancy in larger sizes

> And prices very much below those offered a retail to-day for diamonds of equal quality; a thorough examination of the market proves this assertion.

With particular attention to their intrinsic value, we have mounted a majority of these diamonds in simple form-platinum top and gold shankto insure to those who receive them the freedom of remounting the stones at some future date in accordance with their own fancy, safeguarding the original

Anticipating this purchase and the new lower prices it offers

We have repriced recently every piece of diamond jewelry in our regular stock on a basis of to-day's replacement costs, accepting a very severe loss of profit.

This applies to all our gem prices, even the favorite "Marquis" and "Emerald" cut stones, in very artistic settings.

The present offering, effective now is therefore, of a two-fold nature:

1. A special purchase of diamond rings in wide variety, at 2 5 to 30 per cent under today's retail market. 2. Our entire standard collection of diamond jewelry at 20 to 28 per cent. less. An early inspection is invited; for personal choosing; birthday, wedding and anniversary gifts; especially for Christmas. DIAMOND RINGS DIAMOND BAR PINS

DIAMOND BROOCHES DIAMOND SCARF-PINS DIAMOND LINK-BUTTONS

and all "GIFTS THAT LAST"

Jewelry Store-Street Floor, Stewart Building.